A Disciple's Practice of Justice, Part 1

Is Justice Developed In My Discipleship?

Matthew 7:12-29

This Week's Reading: Matthew 5-7

Icebreaker:
If you were to describe a piece of fruit to someone who has never experienced fruit, how would you do it?

Bible Focus: Matthew 7:24-27

Community Questions:
How would you define being a disciple of Jesus? Can it be observed? How?

What is the point of our focused text? (Matthew 7:24-27)

Can you give an example of when you have been building on a rock? Building on sand? What were the results of either of those choices?

Why is our behavior linked to obedience?

How does this apply to issues of justice/injustice?

Should our discipleship reflect justice behavior? Why? Why not?

If you were to pick an issue of injustice that you are passionate about what would it be? Why?

How does being a disciple reflect who you are towards this issue?

Reflection/Application:
Share how the 23:23 challenge is going this week. What are your struggles? What are your triumphs?

© CCF Sermon Notes 8/16/09